

Figure List

- Figure 1: Study Process
- Figure 2: Engagement Activities
- Figure 3: Collection of Inputs for the TLNAP
- Figure 4: Geographical Context
- Figure 5: Role of the Trent Lands and Nature Areas Plan
- Figure 6a: Campus Area Breakdown
- Figure 6b: Framework Plan
- Figure 7: The Otonabee River and Hydrologic System
- Figure 8: Preserving Views to the River
- Figure 9: Enhancing Physical Connections to and Across the River
- Figure 10: The Great Loop and the Trent Severn Waterway
- Figure 11: Tourism on the Symons Campus
- Figure 12: Vision for a Pedestrianized River's Edge
- Figure 13: A Robust University Green Network
- Figure 14: Examples of Treatments of Ecological Buffers
- Figure 15: Examples of Wildlife Corridors
- Figure 16: A Productive Landscape that Engages Students and Community
- Figure 17: The University Districts
- Figure 18: Opportunities for Indigenous Placemaking on Campus
- Figure 19: An Integrated Seniors Village with access to Rich Natural Assets
- Figure 20: Cleantech Commons Master Plan
- Figure 21: Areas for Town and Gown to Recreate, Mingle, and Play
- Figure 22: The Campus Doughnut
- Figure 23: Examples of the Built-Natural Interface
- Figure 24: Examples of nature-inclusive design within Development Areas
- Figure 25: Landscape Palette
- Figure 26: Existing Cultural Assets on the Symons Campus
- Figure 27: A Connected Multi-Modal Network
- Figure 28: Entrances to the Trent Symons Campus
- Figure 29: The Symons Campus Boundary
- Figure 30: Timeline of the Nature Areas
- Figure 31: Trent Nature Area Values
- Figure 32: 2013 and 2021 Trent Nature Area Boundaries
- Figure 33: Trent Nature Areas (2021)
- Figure 34: Vegetation within the Trent Nature Areas
- Figure 35: Implementation Plans
- Figure 36: Property Ownership and Easements